(b) on 10 days' written notice in the event of material breach of this Agreement by the Supplier;

(c) on giving notice in the event of a Force Majeure Event affecting the Supplier or TMICC which continues for more than 10 days;

(d) for convenience on 30 days' written notice (subject to mandatory local laws requiring a longer notice period); or

(e) immediately or at a later specified date if the Supplier becomes or is likely to become insolvent or enters administration or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or threatens to do any of the foregoing or the equivalent.

16.5. Any individual PO under this Agreement may be terminated earlier by the Supplier on giving 30 days' notice where any invoiced and undisputed sums due under such PO remain unpaid for a period of 60 days after the applicable due date provided such notice states that a failure to pay within 30 days will result in the termination of that PO.

16.6. Surviving provisions. Expiry or termination (regardless of the reason for termination) of the Agreement (in whole or part including any POs) shall not affect clauses 4 (Quality Assurance and Warranties), 8 (Product Recall), 11 (Compliance with Laws and Regulations), 12 (Confidentiality), 13 (Privacy / Data Protection / Use of AI), 14 (Intellectual Property Rights), 15 (Records and Business Continuity), 16 (Termination) and 19 (Laws, Jurisdiction and Disputes) or any clause expressed or by their nature is expected to survive expiry or termination. Indemnities under the Agreement shall survive expiry or termination of the Agreement or any POs, in whole or in part.

16.7. Accrued rights. Expiry or termination of the Agreement (in whole or in part including any POs) shall not prejudice any accrued rights of TMICC.

17. Force Majeure

18.1 A Party unable to perform its obligations under the Agreement due to an event beyond its reasonable control, such as fire, flood, earthquake and other unusual acts of nature, and including TMICC's inability to receive, accept, or use Products, or government actions or sanctions ("Force Majeure Event"), shall be excused from performance for the duration and extent of the Force Majeure Event, provided that: (a) the affected Party has notified the other in writing of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event, detailing the nature and expected duration of the event; (b) the affected Party has used all reasonable efforts to mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure Event and resumed performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably possible.

18.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the following shall not constitute a Force Majeure Event with regards to the Supplier: failure of mechanical equipment, computer hardware, and/or telecommunications equipment, failure of software, power outages, changes in economic conditions or economic hardship, costs and/or delivery issues related to raw materials, strikes and other labour disputes involving the Supplier's representatives (or its affiliates or their representatives).

18.3 Notwithstanding TMICC's termination rights under clause 16.4 where TMICC is affected by a Force Majeure Event such as economic sanctions or other government action which prevents it from receiving the Products/Services; or if the Supplier will, in the reasonable opinion of TMICC, not be able to resume performance under the Agreement after a period of 30 days, TMICC may elect on written notice to terminate the PO or Agreement, in whole or in part, without any liability to the Supplier.

18. Miscellaneous

18.1. Assignment. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, TMICC (and its successors) may assign or novate any or all its rights and obligations arising under or out of this Agreement to:

(a) any of its affiliates or any third party (or any of such party's affiliates) that acquires a controlling interest in TMICC's business to which these GTC's relate, whether by demerger, acquisition or otherwise, without the consent of the Supplier;

(b) any TMICC Group entity, division or business that ceases to be part of the TMICC Group ("Departing Business");

(c) TMICC may require that the Departing Business continues to receive, and the Supplier shall provide, the Products/Services under and in accordance with the Agreement and at no extra charge for a period of up to 24 months from the date of departure (the "Divestiture Period"). During the Divestiture Period, TMICC remains responsible for the payment for such Products/Services and the compliance of the Departing Business with the Agreement.

The Supplier may not assign, transfer or subcontract any of its rights or obligation under the Agreement in part or in whole except with TMICC's written consent.

18.2. Waiver & Amendments. No delay or failure to exercise any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver. Any amendment, waiver or release of any right, power or remedy shall be in writing (excluding email – see clauses 18.5 and 18.6).

18.3. Indemnities. Any indemnity provided in the Agreement shall mean that the Supplier will indemnify and defend TMICC from all losses, costs, expenses (including legal fees and expenses) and liabilities arising out of the Supplier's non-compliance (including that of its employees, officers, subcontractors, suppliers or other parties acting on the Supplier's behalf) with any requirements under this Agreement and/or any Applicable Laws. At TMICC's option, TMICC has the right to participate in any proceedings in which the Supplier is indemnifying TMICC and, if the Supplier fails to defend TMICC, TMICC's participation will be at the Supplier's cost. The indemnities shall apply to TMICC and its affiliates, and its respective employees, directors, shareholders and agents.

18.4. Competition Claims. The Supplier hereby transfers, conveys and assigns to TMICC all rights, title and interest in and to all claims and/or causes of action that the Supplier may have under any Applicable Laws antitrust or competition laws arising out of or relating to the Supplier's purchases of any item that was, is or will be supplied to TMICC. Upon request by TMICC, the Supplier shall promptly execute assignments of claims or causes of action to evidence the foregoing assignment.

18.5. Electronic Communication and Signatures. To facilitate efficient communication and subject to Applicable Laws and other terms specified in this Agreement, the following shall apply:

(c) Each Party shall provide the other Party with their preferred email address(es) for communications (inclusive of notices) and, if applicable, a separate designated email address for the service of legal notices. Each Party is responsible for notifying the other Party of any changes to their designated email address(es).

(d) This clause does not preclude either Party from sending formal notices by other valid means as contemplated in clause 18.6.

18.6. Notices. Should Applicable Laws require any formal notices be given in writing other than electronic form as stated in clause 18.5 or either Party wishes to provide legal notices other than electronically, such written notice shall be treated as delivered: (a) on date of delivery as documented by a pre-paid commercially recognized courier service; (b) five (5) days after posting if sent by pre-paid, certified, first class mail; (c) on the date of in-person delivery. Each Party chooses its registered address for service of any notices and to be addressed to the main business contact and head of legal unless a change of address and contact details is provided in writing.

18.7. No Partnership. The Supplier is an independent contractor and not the legal representative or agent of (nor in partnership with) TMICC. No Party has the right or authority to assume, create or incur any liability or obligation, express or implied, against, in the name of or on behalf of, the other.

18.8. No employment relationship. The Supplier, being an independent contractor, is responsible for managing its employees, agents, contractors, etc and nothing in the Agreement gives rise to an employee relationship between the Supplier, its employees, agents, contractors, etc and TMICC. If any such provision or any part of such provision is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement or the remaining parts of that provision shall not in any way be affected.

18.11. Language. The parties may agree to append a local language translation of all or part of the GTCs. In case of language conflict, the English version shall prevail unless Applicable Laws require otherwise.

18.13. Communication and endorsement. The Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of TMICC, disclose to any third party the fact that the Supplier provides or has provided Product/Services to TMICC. This obligation includes, but is not limited to, any reference in marketing materials, press releases, case studies, client lists, or any other public or private communications. The Supplier shall ensure that its employees, agents, and subcontractors comply with this confidentiality obligation.
